

save the date

Rachel Corrie Foundation

Peace
WORKS
CONFERENCE

October
17-19, 2008
Evergreen College
Olympia, WA

Dual Occupations: Sovereignty and Freedom from Iraq to Palestine

A conference designed to connect communities working to end occupation and war in the Middle East with workshops, panels and trainings led by:

Dahlia Wasfi, MD - An Iraqi American activist who spent her early childhood in Saddam Hussein's Iraq.

Col. Ann Wright - A career military woman, a State Department diplomat, and for the past few years, an influential spokesperson in the anti-war movement.

Ali Abunimah - Journalist and co-founder of Electronic Intifada, and vice-president of the Arab American Action Network (invited).

Phyllis Bennis - A committed scholar-activists with the Institute for Policy Studies and journalist specializing in Middle East and United Nations issues.

Adam Shapiro - Co-founder of International Solidarity Movement in Palestine and the Iraqi Student Project (invited).

Co-sponsored by SESAME & (Re)Imagining the Middle East

For conference updates and more info visit www.rachelcorriefoundation.org/peaceworks, peaceworks@rachelcorriefoundation.org, 306.754.3998